Preface

The Board of Intermediate & Secondary Education, Larkano (BISE Larkano) is a public examination body responsible for the conduct of Secondary School Certificate (SSC) and Higher Secondary School Certificate (HSSC) examinations for its affiliated schools and colleges. The Board is committed to developing examination syllabi that promote informed understanding and reflective engagement with the subject matter, and that remain aligned with the national curriculum.

This document sets out the syllabus for Islamiyat at the HSSC level (Grade XI). It has been developed in recognition of the subject's role in building a well-informed understanding of the sources, beliefs, history and ethical teachings of Islam — knowledge and reflection expected of every Muslim graduate of an affiliated institution, regardless of their chosen field of further study.

The syllabus was developed following consultation with subject specialists, teachers of affiliated institutions, and reviewers with expertise in the teaching of Islamic Studies, and reflects a deliberate effort to move examination preparation away from rote memorisation and toward informed explanation, reflection and the accurate citation of source material.

We are confident that this syllabus will support teachers and students of affiliated institutions in building a well-informed and reflective understanding of Islam, and we wish every success to those who study and teach it.

Understanding of BISE Larkano Syllabi

1. The BISE Larkano syllabi guide students, teachers, parents and other stakeholders regarding the topics that will be taught and examined in each grade. In each syllabus document, the content progresses from simple to complex, facilitating gradual, reflective learning.
2. The topics of each syllabus are divided into sub-topics and Student Learning Outcomes (SLOs). The sub-topics and SLOs define the depth and breadth at which each topic will be taught, learnt and examined.
3. Each SLO begins with an achievable, assessable command word such as ‘describe’, ‘explain’, ‘translate’ or ‘evaluate’. Examination questions are framed using the same command words, or their equivalents, to elicit evidence of these competencies in students’ responses.
4. The SLOs are classified under three cognitive levels: Knowledge (K), Understanding (U), and Application and other higher-order skills (A), to support effective planning by teachers and the balanced construction of examination papers.
5. By focusing on the achievement of SLOs rather than on the reproduction of memorised text, this syllabus aims to encourage students to explain the meaning and relevance of a teaching, to reflect on its application to daily life, and to communicate their understanding clearly — skills that extend well beyond a single assignment or examination.
6. While the syllabus recommends locally available textbooks and resources for achieving these outcomes, teachers and students are encouraged to draw on multiple teaching and learning resources, and to cite the Holy Quran, Hadith and other source material accurately in any answer submitted for assessment.

Subject Rationale of Islamiat

What will you learn in Islamiat?

Islamiat is the study of the fundamental sources, beliefs, history and ethical teachings of Islam. This syllabus teaches students to recite and understand selected verses of the Holy Quran, to trace the life and teachings of the Holy Prophet (ﷺ), to explain the beliefs and acts of worship that structure Muslim life, and to reflect on the history and ethical teachings of Islam.

Many students who can recall a verse or an event have not yet learned to explain its significance — to relate a Quranic teaching to a situation in everyday life, to evaluate the leadership of a historical figure, or to apply an ethical teaching to a contemporary issue. This syllabus addresses that gap directly. Students will study the Holy Quran, the Seerah of the Holy Prophet, the articles of faith and pillars of Islam, Islamic history, and Islamic teachings on society and ethics.

Throughout, the syllabus emphasises informed explanation and reflection — in the examination room and in daily life — rather than the recall of isolated facts.

Why does every student study this subject?

Islamiat is a compulsory subject for Muslim candidates at affiliated institutions, regardless of their chosen group of study; in accordance with national policy, non-Muslim candidates may offer an alternative subject in its place. It provides the shared religious and ethical grounding expected of a Muslim graduate, and complements each student's specialised subjects with a reflective understanding of their faith.

How to approach the syllabus?

The concept map on the following page gives an overview of the entire syllabus. The topics and Student Learning Outcomes guide what has to be achieved, and the Scheme of Assessment explains how each topic will be weighted and examined.

Concept Map

The concept map below organises the syllabus into four connected strands, all resting on a foundation of Reflection on the Quran and Sunnah — the source material from which every other strand of this syllabus draws its teachings.

Quranic Studies

- Selected Verses and their Translation
- Central Themes of the Holy Quran
- Application of Quranic Teachings to Daily Life

Seerah of the Holy Prophet

- The Makkan Period
- The Madinan Period
- Prophetic Leadership and Character

Beliefs and Worship

- The Six Articles of Faith
- The Five Pillars of Islam
- Individual and Social Benefits of Worship

History, Society and Ethics

- The Rightly Guided Caliphs
- Contributions of Muslim Civilization
- The Islamic Social System
- Ethics and Morality

Reflection on the Quran and Sunnah underpins all four strands: every recitation, every historical account and every ethical teaching in this syllabus is ultimately drawn from, and returns to, these primary sources.

Table 1: Number of Student Learning Outcomes by Cognitive Level

Topic No.	Topic	No. of Sub-topics	K	U	A	Total

Table 2A: Overall Marks Distribution

Component	Certificate Entry	Marks
Theory Examination	Islamiyat	50
Total		50

- A Multiple Choice Question (MCQ) requires candidates to choose one best/correct answer from four options. Each MCQ carries ONE mark.
- A Constructed Response Question (CRQ) requires students to respond with a structured explanation, a translation of a prescribed verse, or a reflective or evaluative answer, as appropriate to the SLO being assessed.
- The Theory examination carries 50 marks, is of 2 hours' duration, and consists of Paper I (MCQs) and Paper II (CRQs).
- Unlike the science subjects examined by the Board, Islamiyat has no Practical component: the 50 marks recorded against ‘Islamiyat’ on the Marks Certificate represent the Theory examination in full.

- Table 1 indicates the number and nature of SLOs in each topic and is provided as a guide to the construction of examination papers; it does not translate directly into marks. Emphasis has deliberately been placed on Understanding and Application, to discourage rote memorisation of text without comprehension.
- Where a CRQ requires the translation or citation of a Quranic verse or Hadith, full credit requires an accurate rendering; students are not required to reproduce Arabic script beyond what is prescribed for recitation SLOs.

Academic Integrity

All work submitted for assessment in Islamiat — whether a short answer, a translation, or a reflective or evaluative response — must represent the individual, honest effort of the student submitting it. Affiliated institutions are expected to uphold the BISE Larkano Academic Integrity Policy in full, and to make students aware of the following subject-specific guidance.

Collaboration and Use of Sources

Students are encouraged to discuss the meaning and significance of a teaching, an event or a source text with their peers, and to consult the prescribed textbook and other reputable resources to build their understanding. However, copying an answer from any source — including another student, a book, or an online resource — and submitting it as one's own, with or without superficial changes, is a serious violation of academic integrity.

Accurate Citation of Source Material

Students are expected to cite a verse of the Holy Quran, a Hadith, or a historical event accurately, and to distinguish clearly between an established source text and their own explanation, reflection or evaluation of it. Attributing a fabricated or unverified statement to the Holy Quran or Hadith, even unintentionally through careless citation, should be avoided; where a student is uncertain of an exact reference, they should explain the teaching in their own words rather than risk a false attribution.
